

Transport business and logistics

Field of professional activity:

- organization of transportation and management on railway transport (freight and passenger transportation);
- organization of interaction of various modes of transport;
- transport management in a single transport system;
- design and organization of multimodal logistics complexes and logistics systems;
- organization of high-speed and high-speed transportation;
- organization of transport business processes, calculation of transportation efficiency;
- organization of transportation in large metropolitan areas, development of technology and technical equipment of transport hubs; organization of transportation in international traffic;
- organization of work of transport and forwarding companies.

Graduates can hold the following positions:

- ✓ logistician;
- ✓ engineer;
- ✓ Director of a transport and logistics company;
- ✓ head of the sector;
- ✓ specialist of the transport and logistics center;
- ✓ head of the logistics department.

Our partners are companies for employment and internship:

- ❖ Corporate Transport Service Center – branch of JSC "Russian Railways",
- ❖ Central Directorate of Traffic Management – branch of JSC "Russian Railways",
- ❖ JSC "First Cargo Company",
- ❖ Transcontainer JSC,
- ❖ JSC "RZD-Logistics",
- ❖ PJSC "EuroChem", etc..

In the course of training, disciplines will be studied:

- Information technologies in the transport business,
- Organization of container and piggyback transportation,
- Documentation support of the transport business,
- Organization of multimodal and intermodal transport,
- Organization of work of logistics providers in supply chains,
- Business planning in transport, Organization of terminal complexes.

Mainline transport

Field of professional activity:

At the areas of transportation organization and management in railway transport (freight and passenger transportation);

organization of interaction of various modes of transport;

transport management in a single transport system;

organization of high-speed and high-speed transportation; design of the infrastructure of railway and other types of transport, calculation of the capacity of the main and additional devices; development of the technology of operation and technical equipment of transport hubs;

organization of transportation in international traffic.

Graduates can hold the following positions:

engineer;

operator of the centralization post;

duty on the sorting hill;

park attendant;

railway station attendant;

train dispatcher;

the head of the railway station.

Our partners are companies for employment and internship:

Central Directorate of Traffic Management – branch of JSC "Russian Railways", Road Transportation Management Center;

The road center of the organization of the work of railway stations;

JSC "First Cargo Company";

railway stations;

access roads of large companies and enterprises.

In the course of training, disciplines will be studied:

Information technologies on mainline transport,

Organization of work of forwarding companies,

Organization of passenger transportation,

Industrial transport,

Tariff policy in cargo communications,

Improving the efficiency of the transportation process on railway lines,

Technology and organization of high-speed traffic.

Passenger complex of railway transport

Field of professional activity:

organization of transportation and management on railway transport (passenger transportation);
organization of interaction of various modes of transport;
transport management in a single transport system;
design and organization of multimodal logistics complexes and logistics systems;
organization of high-speed and high-speed transportation;
organization of work of railway complexes;
providing a customer-oriented approach and service in the field of passenger transportation.

Graduates can hold the following positions:

hall attendant;
assistant station master on duty;
chief engineer;
specialist in working with passengers;
head of the sector;
leading technologist;
head of the railway station;
director of the passenger company.

Our partners are companies for employment and internship:

railway station complex (Directorate of Railway Stations – branch of JSC "Russian Railways"); Central Directorate of Passenger Facilities – branch of JSC "Russian Railways"; transportation of passengers (JSC "Federal Passenger Company").

In the course of training, disciplines will be studied:

Information technologies in the passenger complex,
Improving the efficiency of the transportation process on railway lines,
Organization of high-speed and high-speed passenger train traffic,
Technology of operation and operation of railway station complexes,
Rules of transportation and tariffs in passenger messages,
Customer-oriented passenger transportation by rail,
Management of passenger companies.